WHAT:

Oktane 2014 San Francisco

WHEN:

Monday, November 10 - Wednesday, November 12

WHERE:

Booth #9

The Westin St. Francis
335 Powell St
San Francisco, CA 94102

BREAKOUT SESSION:

Enterprise Threat Level Red

Speaker: Rajesh Ram, Co-Founder and Vice President of Product Management

Date/Time: Wednesday, November 12 at 10:45 AM PT

Session Description: Cloud, mobility and the Internet of things represent an unprecedented opportunity to reinvent enterprise architectures, enable productivity and save costs. However, these trends also bring along a previously unseen level of threat to the enterprise. An enterprise adopting these capabilities can usher in tremendous benefits, while making its walls elastic and porous. This presentation will dissect the key threat vectors that IT organizations face today and provide a framework to manage and counter these threats.
